

Acquisitions - New Markets

Estáter, the investment boutique led by the banker Pércio de Souza, starts to operate in the European market. Responsible for advising companies in some of the most important transactions of the country in the last years, such as the merger of Casas Bahia with Grupo Pão de Açúcar and the purchase of the pulp and paper manufacturer Aracruz by Votorantim group, Estáter will open soon an office in London. The operation will be led by the executive Claudio Konarzewski, who worked for the Swiss bank UBS, in Zurich. Konarzewski will have the mission to support Brazilian businesspeople to find good deals in Europe and also intends to function as a bridge for European companies interested in investing in the Brazilian market.

Free translation from the original article as posted on the Portuguese section of our website.

Revista Exame - April 06, 2011.

http://estater.com.br/news/rev.%20exame%2006.04.11_24.pdf